Cocopah Resort & Conference Center opens for business General soft opening slated to begin Monday, December 10

Cocopah Indian Tribe — The Cocopah Resort & Conference Center is currently taking reservations and will open its doors beginning Monday, December 10. Resort staff is also accepting reservations for conferences, special events and banquets in the Conference Center and additional meeting space areas, totaling more than 4,000 square feet of meeting space.

While the Cocopah Resort & Conference Center will be open for operation, a grand opening celebration is being planned for a later date.

Anyone interested in additional information or in reserving rooms or meeting space may contact the Cocopah Resort & Conference Center at (928) 722-6677.

The resort, described as a modern Southwest style with soft colors and landscaping, comprises 101 rooms – including seven suite-style rooms – a swimming area and a cultural display area.

The Cocopah Resort and Conference Center is located at 15268 S. Avenue B in Somerton, Ariz., near Highway 95 adjacent to the Cocopah Casino. The resort is also within miles of Yuma, Ariz., the Yuma International Airport and two major ports of entry at the U.S.-Mexico Border. While staying at the resort, guests will also enjoy visiting the Cocopah Casino, the Cocopah RV and Golf Resort, the Cocopah Museum, the Cocopah Korner and Cocopah Rio Colorado Golf Course.
